Volunteers: Southwest Kansas will be part of a nation-wide effort to count the homeless and we really need your help! Catholic Social Service is recruiting and training volunteers to help us count the homeless by administering a short one-page survey in nine counties in southwest Kansas from Jan. 23-Jan. 30th: Barber, Barton, Clark, Finney, Ford, Kiowa, Pawnee and Seward. This count is a requirement for the funding we receive to assist the homeless; it will also help us to better understand the demographics and changes in homelessness in our local communities so that we can provide better services, education and awareness. If you can give a few daytime or evening hours to help, please call the Catholic Social Service office at 620-792*-1393.
