There is a certain urgency in today's Gospel as Jesus calls His first disciples – Andrew, and Simon, James and John. Each one follows Jesus immediately, unhesitatingly abandoning nets and boats and father and fellow-workers. To what is Jesus calling me – at this moment, in these circumstances? What will I need to abandon in order to follow Him?

DIOCESAN BUILDING COMMITTEE Following Church protocol, late last year we asked if Sacred Heart could be placed on the agenda of the Diocesan Building Committee. Last week representatives from our parish attended their quarterly meeting. A floor plan and artistic rendering were presented. Also presented was the timeline of the process that the parish has been engaged in: the joint meeting of Pastoral Council & Finance Council in February of 2014; the March invitation to parishioners to participate in the building walk through with the building assessment and engineering studies; the April Town Hall meeting facilitated by Mr. Basil Dannebohm; the August letters inviting parishioners to participate in a Feasibility Study conducted by Mark Davy & Associates and the study document itself – along with their executive summary; the process of forming a building committee; notes from the November Town Hall meeting addressing needs and wants; bulletins and bulletin inserts; information from Walsh & Associates contracted to manage a capital campaign; and information from meetings convened by interested parishioners regarding Sacred Heart's future plans. The meeting went well. Bishop Brungardt and his Building Committee will examine what we have presented and will advise us of needed changes or factors that require further consideration.
